

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

WHY DO STUDENTS CHEAT?

Are your students cheating?

How can you tell?

And what can you do to prevent it?

5th Annual CSL Teaching Enrichment Workshop

Thursday, April 23

1:30 - 4:45 p.m.

MTCC Auditorium, IIT Main Campus

Refreshments served mid-workshop.
Panel discussion follows.

This event is free, but registration is required by April 15.

Please email cronin@iit.edu or call 312.567.3132.

All faculty and future teachers, teaching assistants, adjuncts, and post docs welcome.

Questions? Contact Associate Dean Ishaque Khan, khan@iit.edu

This workshop will help faculty understand several issues related to academic dishonesty on exams and assignments.

- What are the reasons that students cheat?
- Who are the students most likely to cheat?
- What attitudes do students hold toward academic dishonesty?
- How can instructors, students, and the university in general promote a culture of academic honesty?

College of Science and Letters

ILLINOIS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Workshop Leaders

Dr. Gregory S. Blimling
Vice President for Student Affairs
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

Dr. Panthea Crane
Director, Center for Academic Integrity
Boston, Massachusetts

Dr. Gregory S. Blimling is a nationally recognized leader and scholar in student development, specializing in compliance, student policy and judicial affairs in undergraduate student life. He has authored or co-authored scores of books and articles, including "Curbing Epidemic Cheating Through Systematic Change."

Dr. Panthea Crane is director of the Center for Educational Integrity, a Boston-based nonprofit foundation devoted to research on ethics in educational settings. Trained as an educational psychologist, Dr. Crane specializes in the study of how students develop values and ethics. She is a popular speaker with both students and faculty.